

AACUC's

Professional Development Programs

AACUC offers multiple diverse programs for professionals to gain competencies and build personal networks. From learning strategies to be an effective board member to acquiring skills to progress to executive leadership, AACUC has a program to meet nearly every member need.

About AACUC

The African-American Credit Union Coalition (AACUC) is a 501c3 non-profit organization created in 1999 to increase the strength of the global credit union community through professional development and advocacy. Recipient of the 2022 Anchor Award from the National Credit Union Foundation, it has become an all-encompassing organization for individuals (professional and volunteers) in Credit Unions, Insurance, Regulators, Consultants and other entities in the credit union industry. AACUC is considered a leader in the credit union industry adopting the 8th Cooperative Principle and providing knowledge of how credit unions can become more diverse and inclusive.

www.aacuc.org

Let's
Connect

DEI Academy

As part of AACUC's Commitment to Change: Credit Unions Unite Against Racism initiative, the DEI Leadership Academy for Financial Professionals is designed to inspire and empower financial professionals to lead with a mindset of diversity, equity, and inclusion to better represent and serve the global communities for which we serve.

The DEI Academy is a 5-week certificate program. Learning modules are led by expert speakers representing financial services, diversity, and human resources.

Mentorship Program

AACUC's Mentorship Program offers participants interaction with industry leaders and provides guidance on career opportunities and decisions along with a curriculum that is centered around professional development.

Rosemary Brinkley C-Level Leadership Development Program

The Rosemary Brinkley C-Level Leadership Development Program is designed to provide executive development and establish a pipeline of diverse leadership in the credit union industry. A tailored solution designed specifically for high-achieving professionals who desire to cultivate their leadership skills, this 12-month cohort leadership program supports middle managers and credit union leaders needing to develop as an executive or improve their C-Level brand to achieve results and drive change in their organizations.

BoardReady Training

BoardReady is a leadership development program that prepares rising professionals to be candidates for serving on a nonprofit board in their communities. Our BoardReady Training Series is designed to help enhance leadership skills and prepare you to serve with impact on non-profit boards within your community.

Credit Union BoardReady

We are excited to announce a new leadership development opportunity for those interested in finding opportunities to serve on a credit union board. Our Credit Union BoardReady Training Series is designed to enhance your knowledge about credit unions with the goal of helping you to seek out, and successfully interview for, a credit union board position in your community.